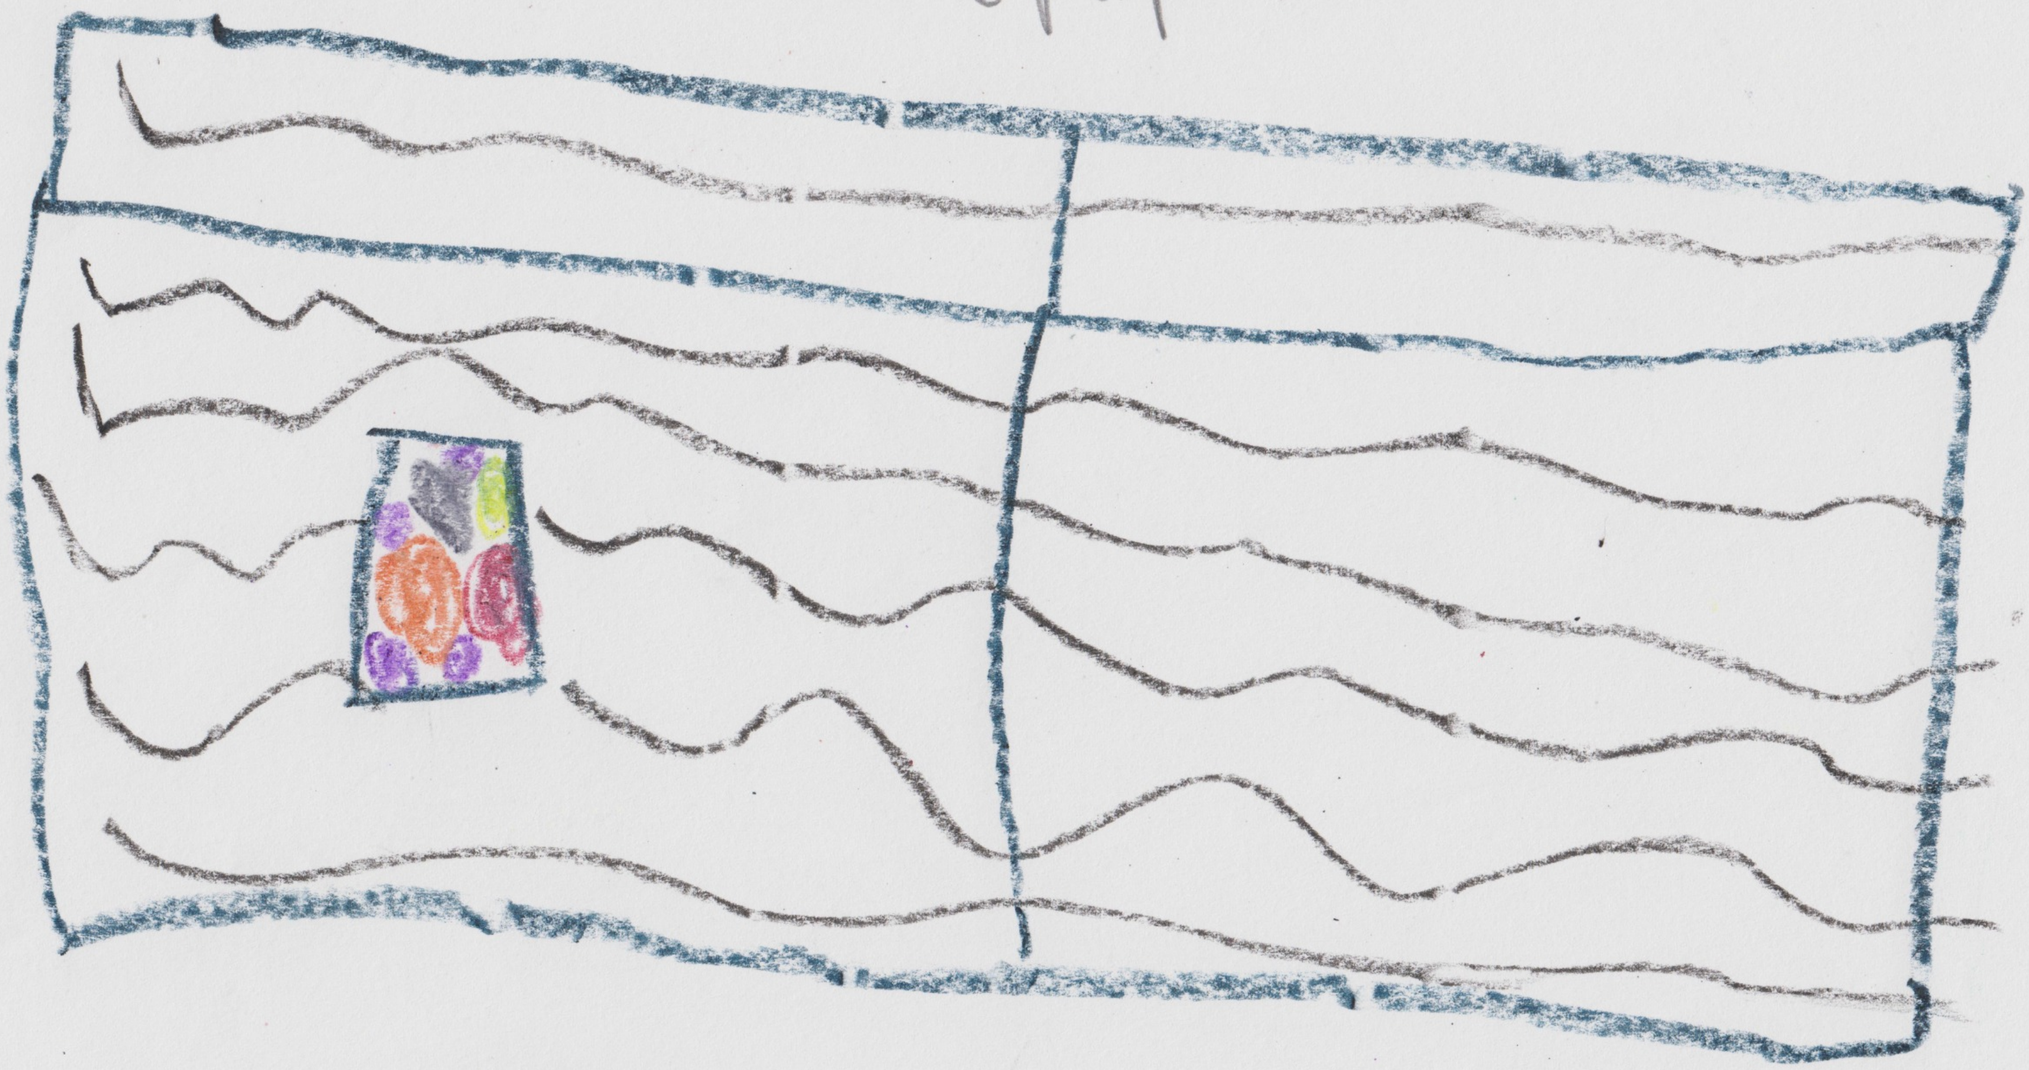
Jack's Crystals

by. Hudson Smith

Once upon a time in a land farfar away, wasa knight named Jack. He had a horse named Penelope.

one day Jack saw a picture of a cave with special crystals on the newspaper.



So Jack and Penelope set off to find the cave

When they found it, Jack told Penelope to wait. Jack went in but he was shocked to find a big cave monster. It had big shiny horns.

Jack ran outside and made a plan. Then he went back in the cave. When the cave monstr ran toward him, Jack sang a sleepy song. The monstr fell asleep!

Jack ran toward the crystals and put them in a sack. Then he ran away to his horse and they rode home.

Jack sorted the crystals and he made a shop to sell the crystals. The shop had shiny crystals, rusty crystals, and gold crystals.

The crystals had powers. they had the power to make Someone fly, or be invisible, or breathe underwater.

The end.

2018 KET Young Writers Contest Winning Entry

KET.org/WritersContest